

Bay Laurel

Description: A shrub with shiny green leaves that smell amazing when crushed.

Culture: In Ancient Greece and Rome, winners and heroes were crowned with bay leaves!

Fun Fact: Bay leaves are used in cooking, but you shouldn't eat them whole because they're too tough!